2022 Fire Island National Seashore's Artist-in-Residence

The Fire Island National Seashore Artist-in-Residence Program is an opportunity for emerging and professional artists of all disciplines to spend time residing in the park while developing a body of work inspired by the barrier island environment.

Four two-week residencies at Watch Hill, Fire Island are being offered beginning:

- Late May
- Early June
- Early September
- Late September

I check on the shells at sunset. Today, the seashore is mine alone. I have come to this barrier island again, after a separation from a woman and a silence to speak of. Shells emerge intact in shades of purple and pearly white. My Shelley seashore.

AIR Shelley Wong, 2018

AIR Beth-Ann Wilson, 2018

AIR Sven Anderson, 2014

AIR Eileen Ferrara, 2019

AIR Melissa Godoy, 2017
